

Broadlawns Medical Center

Financial Assistance Policy Community Care Program and Catastrophic Financial Assistance Plain Language Summary

If you are in need of medical services but have limited income, limited or no health insurance Broadlawns can help.

Broadlawns offers free or discounted care for emergency or other medically necessary services:

- 100% discounted services for families or individuals with an annual income that is less than or equal to 300% of the federal poverty level, as determined by guidelines published annually by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (FPL).
- For families and individuals with incomes between 301% - 400% of the federal poverty level, you will not pay more than amounts generally billed to individuals who have insurance, and may be eligible for additional discounts.
- You will have cooperated with efforts to exhaust all other local, state, or federal benefit programs.
- You will have completed a program application, and provided supporting documentation to verify income.
- The Policy and Application are available in multiple languages and interpreters are available.
